Somerset House has several entrances, for this event we advise you arrive via the New Wing entrance (pictured here).

The event is taking place in the Lancaster Rooms.

Enter the New Wing,
This route is step-free.

Once inside please continue past the New Wing Reception and turn right at the hallway.

In this hallway you will be welcomed by one of our Visitor Experience Assistants who will check if you have pre-booked ticket or and assist you if you still need to book a ticket. They will be available to help with any questions you have on the day. All staff will be wearing purple t-shirts.

You will then be inside the event space and able to explore.

Toilets are available next to the exhibition.

Access packs will be available from the exhibition entrance.

These contain noise cancelling headphones, magnifying glass sheet for reading any printed text, a large print guide and a stress ball.
